

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 1, 1963

Dear Mr. Harfield:

You know, I am sure, what great personal satisfaction I have taken in the recent return of the Cuban prisoners to their families. I have learned through the Attorney General of your willing devotion of time and effort to this project at the heart of the holiday season.

I understand how vital the letter of credit arrangements were in the course of the negotiations, and how important a role you played in their preparation. Please accept, again, my sincerest thanks and appreciation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Lyndon B. Johnson". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping loop at the end.
